Dear Mr. Christopher:

Thank you for your kind invitation to Admiral Inman to address a seminar on the Freedom of Information Act on 16 September 1982. You no doubt know that Admiral Inman's resignation from CIA will be effective on 1 July. Because of the uncertainty of his future after that date, he regrets that he will be unable personally to accommodate you.

Because of our continuing interest in the subject of FOIA, however, we are prepared to offer another CIA officer who might address this subject knowledgeably. If you are willing to accept a substitute for Admiral Inman, please let me know at your earliest convenience and we can work out the arrangements.

Thank you again for your interest.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Wilson
Chief, Public Affairs Division
